

NATIONAL FRAUD INITIATIVE (NFI) - PROCESS PRIVACY NOTICE

REASON FOR NOTICE

Public bodies spend billions of pounds of taxpayers' money for the benefit of the Scottish population. Public spending systems are complex and mistakes can happen. Some people also seek to exploit the systems and fraudulently obtain services and benefits to which they are not entitled.

This privacy notice describes how Scottish Water collects and processes Personal Data - meaning any information relating to an identifiable person ("Personal Data") that is processed under our legal obligations with the National Fraud Initiative (NFI).

Audit Scotland, working closely with public bodies, auditors and the Cabinet Office, undertake the NFI data sharing and matching exercises every 2 years. The NFI is run in collaboration with The Auditor General, the Accounts Commission and Audit Scotland who work together to deliver public audit in Scotland.

Data matching involves comparing computer records held by one body against other computer records held by the same or another body to see how far they match. This is usually personal information. Computerised data matching allows potentially fraudulent claims and payments to be identified but the inclusion of personal data within a data matching exercise does not mean that any specific individual is under suspicion. Where a match is found it indicates that there may be an inconsistency that requires further investigation. No assumption can be made as to whether there is fraud, error, or other explanation until an investigation is carried out. The exercise can also help bodies to ensure that their records are up to date.

The NFI exercises significantly contribute to the security and transparency of public sector finances. Public bodies' participation in the NFI helps confirm that services are provided to the correct people and to reduce fraud and error.

Further information on the NFI can be found on the Audit Scotland website - <https://www.audit-scotland.gov.uk/our-work/counter-fraud>
